VOLUME XXXIV. UKIAH CITY. MENDOCINO COUNTY, CAL., FRIDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 25. 1903. NUMBER [illegible]

JAMES STOKES FOUND GUILTY

Convicted of Murder of His Sister-in-Law, Mrs. Sarah Stokes

James R. Stokes was found guilty last Saturday afternoon of the murder of Sarah Stokes, his sister-in-law, and still has hanging over him the charge of having murdered his brother, Robert Stokes, at the same time and place.

Robert Stokes and his wife, Sarah Stokes were found dead early on the morning of March 23, 1903, at their home four or five miles from Boonville, in this county. Both had been shot thru the face and head with a shot gun which was loaded with buck shot. It was James R. Stokes, whose home was near by, who made the horrifying discovery and gave notice to the neighbors. At the inquest facts were brot out which excited suspicion that James R. Stokes was the murderer and he was arrested. He was tried in June, the jury failing to agree.

The second trial began Wednesday of last week and ended Saturday with a verdict of guilty as charged, with punishment fixed at imprisonment for life. The evidence brot out at the trial was practically the same as that at the former trial. It was wholly circumstantial. The defendant himself testified that he got up early on the morning of March 23d, started the fire in his home and then went out to a pile of pickets between his own and his brother's house to get three pickets to stop a hole in the fence. While there he heard a scream at his brother's house, followed immediately by the report of a gun and that by a second report.

He ran to the house and entering by the back way found his brother lying dead in the doorway of the kitchen with a shot gun lying beside his feet. Entering the house, he saw Mrs. Sarah Stokes on the bed dead with her feet hanging out toward the floor. He went home, told his wife, ate his breakfast and then proceeded to notify the neighbors and have the coroner summoned. He stated that the shot gun found beside the dead man was his, and that his brother had borrowed it the evening before to shoot something that was bothering his chickens. He and his brother had had trouble and quarrels in the past, and at least on one occasion had fought.

The prosecution put on a number of witnesses to try to forge a complete chain of circumstances against the defendant. It was proved that James Stokes remarked on the morning of the tragedy that it looked bad for him as that was his gun. Before he was arrested he told one witness that he supposed he was under arrest.

The most damaging evidence used against the defendant was the mute testimony of five marks on the right foot of Sarah Stokes which appeared to have been made by the tacks or nails in a hob nailed shoe. It was the theory of the prosecution that James Stokes was hidden in the woodshed adjoining the kitchen and when his brother, Robert, started to come out shot him and then rushed into the bedroom to kill Sarah Stokes in order to destroy all evidence of his crime. There a struggle ensued. The evidence was that there were bruises on the body and limbs of Sarah Stokes, and one of the bed pillows was lying over in the corner of the room on the floor. The shoes worn by defendant that morning were hobnailed shoes, and when fitted to the marks on Sarah Stokes' foot, the projecting nails compared with the marks, as tho in the struggle the wearer had stepped upon the woman's bare foot. It was proved that Robert Stokes wore smooth soled light shoes that morning. There was found in a closet at Robert Stokes' house several weeks afterwards a pair of hobnailed shoes but there was no evidence that they had been recently worn.

The prosecution was conducted by District Attorney Robert Duncan and Attorney J. C. Ruddock, while Attorney Jno. L. McNab handled the defense alone. On both sides the case was ably handled, both in the production of evidence and in the arguments.

The convicted man appeared for sentence Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. Before sentence was pronounced District Attorney Duncan moved the court that the case against defendant for the murder of Robert Stokes be dismissed, and it was so ordered. James R. Stokes was then told to stand up and the court said: "Mr. Stokes, you were regularly charged by information filed in this court with the murder of Sarah Stokes on the 23d day of March, 1903. A jury was impanelled to try the case. You were ably defended and after hearing the evidence, the jury found you guilty of murder of the first degree and fixed your punishment at imprisonment for life. Have you any legal reason why sentence should not be pronounced against you?" The defendant answered with calm firmness, looking the court straight in the eye: "No legal reason, your honor, but I am innocent." The court then pronounced sentence of imprisonment in the state prison at San Quentin for the term of the prisoner's natural life.

THE BAILEY-BROWN CASE

Court Grants Nonsuit at Conclusion of Testimony For Plaintiff

The breach of promise of marriage suit of Miss Flora C. Baley against John L. Brown, came on for trial before a jury in the superior court here last Monday morning. Spectators, except members of the bar and representatives of the local press, were excluded from the court room on motion of defendant's attorneys. The plaintiff was the first witness. She testified with calmness and dignity that an engagement was entered into in 1899 by which they mutually agreed to marry each other, and that since that time the subject had often been talked over and the engagement confirmed. It was agreed and understood that the marriage should not take place until after the death of plaintiff's mother, who is still living.

Some letters and notes from defendant to plaintiff were introduced in evidence, but in none of them was the subject of marriage or an engagement referred to. Plaintiff's mother testified that defendant had asked her how she would like him for a son-in-law.

This closed the case for the plaintiff, whereupon defendant's attorneys moved for a nonsuit, and after hearing argument the court granted the motion, and so the case came to an abrupt end.

Grand Officers' Visit

Last Saturday evening Grand Master Orren S. Henderson, Grand Lecturer W. H. Edwards and Grand Orator E. H. Hart, of the Masonic order, visited Abell lodge, No. 146. A very profitable and pleasant evening was spent. After lodge work a banquet was spread to which all did justice. Addresses were made by Brothers Henderson, Edward and Hart.

Wash Bailey, the plasterer, has gone to the city to work at his trade.

SCHOOLMA'AM IS HELD UP

Pretty Miss Bonnie Gaine Held Up by a Bold Robber

Miss Bonnie Gaine, who teaches the Fountain school three miles out from Hopland, was held up last Thursday week by a bold tramp and robbed of her lunch and a gold watch chain.

The pretty little schoolma'am boards with friends in Hopland and goes out to school in the morning and returns in the afternoon. She rides a wheel about two miles, and leaving it in an old shed along the roadside, proceeds the rest of the distance, about a mile, on foot. Miss Gaine had noticed a tramp near the shed for several days. On Thursday she got off her wheel as usual at the shed and was suddenly confronted by a rusty looking fellow who demanded her valuables. He took her lunch and a gold watch chain and politely went on his way.

Upon returning to Hopland that afternoon, hungry and as foot sore as tho she had unloaded a cord of tanbark, the little schoolma'am told of her adventure. Several sleuth hounds, among them a Hopland deputy, are hunting for the robber. It has been reported that a rusty tramp has tried to sell a watch chain to different people in town, and it will not be long till the fellow is caught.

Thot Former Wife Dead.

A suit was filed in the Superior Court of this county on the 16th inst, by George Edgar Shinn of Potter Valley, against Sarah Elizabeth Wells, sometimes known as Sarah Elizabeth Shinn, the complaint setting forth the following circumstances. Plaintiff and defendant intermarried in San Francisco March 15th 1883 and lived and cohabited together up to July 1st 1902. Plaintiff had at the time of such marriage, a former wife living, who had never been divorced, but whom both plaintiff and defendant thot was dead. On July 1st 1902, plaintiff and defendant learned for the first time that said former wife of plaintiff was living. Plaintiff and defendant acted in good faith in marrying and living together. While so living together as husband and wife, defendant filed a homestead on a tract of land in Humboldt county for the mutual benefit of her selfand plaintiff. Plaintiff now prays the Court that his marriage to and with defendant be declared null and void, and that the homestead above mentioned be set aside and vacated, and the land described therein be adjudged and declared to be the sole property of plaintiff, subject to the life estate therein of the defendant, she to have the rents issues and profits during her natural life, and she also to have the furniture accumulated by the parties during her life, both land and furniture to revert to plaintiff at defendant's death.

The Last Farewell.

Last Monday Mrs. James R. Stokes and her daughter, Mrs. Robert Page went to the county jail to say the last good bye to the husband and father James R. Stokes, the convicted murderer of his own brother and his wife's sister, in view of immediate departure for Canada where they will make there future home with Robert Page, who preceded them and has already purchased a home. The parting was pathetic, and for the first time since his arrest the convicted man exhibited violent emotion. The wife and daughter departed on the morning train Tuesday for Canada, and on the afternoon train of the same day James R. Stokes was taken by Deputy Tom Binckley to San Quentin, where he is to spend his remaining days as a felon.

The width of a continent will separate husband and wife, father and daughter, and the probabilities are that nevermore will they meet on earth. Truly "the way of the transgressor is hard," not only for the transgressor, but for the innocent ones connected with him by ties of family and kindred.

GEYSERVILLE WINS GAME

A Good Game of Ball—Ukiah Defeated, 4 to 2

Last Sunday a good natured crowd gathered at the local diamond to witness the ball game between Geyserville and the home team. Up to the seventh inning the game was a tie. Ukiah made a bobble and let two men in, making the score 4 to 2 and could never regain the lost ground. The battery was Sanford and Duff. This was the "Chief's" first appearance since July when he got an ankle broken. He pitched a good game, struck out sixteen men, fielded his position well and led in the batting—yet Ukiah lost.

Next Sunday a return game will be played with Geyserville for a purse of $100.

On Sunday the 4th of October, the third of a series between the Mendocino and Lake county Indians will be played for a purse of $182.

Death of J. H. Mohr

John Henry Mohr, the popular usher at the local state hospital, died last week after a short illness. He was born in San Francisco Nov. 18, 1874 and came to Ukiah about two years ago where he secured the position as usher at the hospital. He was a general favorite among the employes.

He was married to Mrs. Alhe Goforth July 16, 1902, and his death brings grief not only to a wife and child but also to a mother, sister and brother. The remains were taken to San Francisco last Saturday, funeral at Native Sons' hall, cremation at I. O. O. F. cemetery.

REDWOOD MEN REACHING OUT

To Form a Million Dollar Company to Handle Product

A company, incorporated for a million dollars and including among its members the heads of all the redwood lumber corporations in California, notably C. A. Hooper & Co., Pacific Lumber company, Union Lumber company, Hammond Lumber company and other big concerns, which have vast timber holdings in the northern timber belts, will be launched in a few days in San Francisco.

Its main purposes are to give greater impetus to the steadily increasing demand for California redwood in the East. One of the first moves to be made by the new company will be the erection of sawing and planing mills, sash and door factories and a manufactory of wooden water pipe and a big drying plant, a site for all of which has been secured near Antioch, adjoining the drying plant of the California Redwood Shingle combine. It is purposed to maintain a supply of between twenty and thirty million feet of redwood lumber for shipment to the Eastern markets.

Up to a few months ago the supply of California lumber had not passed beyond the local markets, the consumption in the state being almost equal to the supply of the mills. With the sudden demand for wood in the East the producers here recognized the necessity for an organization that would be able to properly foster this new trade and act as a distributor in foreign markets.

With these plans in view the larger members of the redwood association got together several weeks ago and have since been quietly conferring at their exchange at 6 California street. On Saturday the plans for the new company were fully arranged and the entire matter turned over to the association's lawyers, who are now drawing up the articles of incorporation. It has been estimated that nearly one million dollars will be necessary to start the new enterprise, and the greater part of this sum has already been subscribed. In the drying of its redwood lumber and planing it before shipment the dealers will save a large sum of money in freight charges.

The company practically is an adjunct of the redwood association. Its agencies for disbursing purposes will be established in all the principal cities of the East. Thru this medium the price of California redwood will be controlled by the association which aims to maintain a monopoly of the timber business in this state.—S. F. Call.

Pretty Home Wedding.

A very pretty home wedding took place last Tuesday the 22nd inst. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford, near Largo, when Miss Edna Grace Crawford, their adopted daughter, and Mr. James M. Hines of Indiana were joined in holy wedlock. The wedding ceremony was said at 12 30 p. m. and was followed by a splendid dinner to which full justice was done. W. O. Waggener of this city was the officiating minister. Only the family and relatives were present. The bride and groom took the afternoon train for San Francisco where they were joined by John and Mrs. Crawford Wednesday and all four started East. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford will make an extended visit in the eastern states, this being Mr. Crawford's first visit since he left his childhood home over fifty year ago. Mr. Hines is a railroad conductor in Indiana, and is a man of excellent character and reputation.

Farming Made Easier

Surprises constantly await us and the very newest is the inoculation of the soil with bacteria that enables plants to absorb nitrogen from the air. It is thot this process will put stable compost, guano and other fertilizers out of business. Worn out soils will be rejuvenated by this inoculation and the farmer is confidently promised an increase in crops of certain kinds of from 100 to 1000 per cent by the intelligent treatment of their soils.

This may look like a burlesque, but is vouched for by those high in authority as the genuine thing. Still it is a little hard to take down at first, as the last thing perspiring humanity expected was a recipe, duly certified by the government, for "farming made easy." Main strength was so long the only factor used in farming that even now, notwithstanding the tremendous advance made in that direction, propositions in scientific agriculture are looked upon by many as merely a series of costly and more or less doubtful experiments. They are demonstrable facts, nevertheless, and may be hailed as a mighty step in the gradual evolution of the oldest of industries, the primitive stage of which was represented by Markham's "Man With the Hoe."—American Farmer.

A Letter From Litchfield, Neb.

Thomas Clancy, of Litchfield, Neb. wrote us a few weeks ago about his experience with Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic. As his case may be similar to others it naturally would be of interest to them to know the result of his test. He had been haunted for years with a gradual growing weakness until he was reduced to almost a shadow. His complexion was sallow and pimply, had dizzy and sinking spells, with loss of memory and ambition. Always felt tired and outdone, suffered greatly with nervousness, and felt that his heart's action was weak. His digestion was so poor his system received no nutriment. He says he commenced the use of this Tonic, taking one tablet after each meal. He did not notice much change after using one box only he enjoyed his meals better, still he kept on until he had used six boxes. He used the last box more than six months ago. When he stopped the use of the Tonic he weighed 28 lbs. more than he did when he commenced. Has not been sick a day since, and is well in both mind and body. Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic is the best medicine in the world for pale, weak or sickly women. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or sent by mail on receipt of price. Write us about your case. Address Dr. Gunn, Philadelphia, Pa. For sale by Mathews Drug Co.

The editor of the Lurfkin (Tex) Leader is nothing, if not resourceful. Hear him: "An industrious farmer of Angelina county has crossed his bees with lightning bugs and they work all night, and also budded a piece of possum tail to a tatervine and expects this fall to gather a full crop of possum and taters from the same vine."

The Commoner.

(Mr. Bryan's Paper.)

The Commoner has attained within six months from date of the first issue a circulation of 100,000 copies, a record probably never equaled in the history of American periodical literature. The unparalleled growth of this paper demonstrates that there is room in the newspaper field for a national paper devoted to the discussion of political, economic and social problems. To the columns of The Commoner Mr. Bryan contributes his best efforts; and his review of political events as they arise from time to time can not fail to interest those who study public questions.

The Commoner's regular subscription price is $1.00 per year. We have arranged with Mr. Bryan whereby we can furnish his paper and THE DISPATCH together for one year for $3.25. The regular subscription price of the two papers when subscribed for separately is $3.50.

What Has Happened This Week in the Fog Belt

MENDOCINO PICK-UPS.

Died, at Iversen, Friday, Sept. 11th, the nine-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Craig.

Miss Van Duzen, who has been making her sister, Mrs. Eugene Brown, an extended visit, departed Wednesday for Redlands on the Phoenix.

That lucky Italian spoken of in last week's Beacon, who was shot for a deer by his brother, is now out of danger and on a fair road to recovery.

Born at Woodland, Yolo county, Sept. 16th, to the wife of W. A. Robertson, a daughter. Mrs. Robertson was formerly Miss Olga Sjolund, whose parents live in Mendocino.

Lumber prices have declined lately presumably on account of the approach of the winter months. Railroad ties have dropped three cents in sympathy with the lumber.

The timber fires this fall have been of unusual severity. Eugene Brown lost over 3000 ties by fire out on the Little Lake road this week. Buildings and fences have been burned in a number of places. The smoke for sometime has been almost unbearable, but fog was heartily welcomed Thursday.

The Mendocino schools were closed this week on account of a supposed case of small pox, Mrs. Gonsalves, of Furytown, being the subject. The woman stoutly denies the claims of Dr. Burgess that it is small pox. She says the eruptions on her body are the result of eating too much dried or smoked salmon, and in working in the sun gathering huckleberries, the bad blood has come to the surface.

Two gentlemen from Dixon, this state, were here this week, negotiating for a dairy farm apiece. L. Mason, one of the gentlemen, is a butter maker of more than local reputation and would be a valuable addition to Mendocino's industries. There is some likelihood of their purchasing the George Daniels and Manuel Marshall Souza places at Pine Grove, three miles north of town.

Monday, Sept. 7th, at 1 o'clock p. m., Rev. Mr. Anderson, of Philo, pronounced the happy words which made Henry Derosier, of Albion, and Miss Annie E. Holmberg, of Philo, man and wife. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Holmberg, and was attended by many relatives of the contracting parties. Miss A. E. Holmberg, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid while Herbert H. Stout acted as groomsman. Soon after the interesting ceremony an elaborate spread was served.

A Remarkable Record

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a remarkable record. It has been in use for over thirty years, during which time many million bottles have been sold and used. It has long been the standard and main reliance in the treatment of croup in thousands of homes, yet during all this time no case has ever been reported to the manufacturers in which it failed to effect a cure. When given as soon as the child becomes hoarse or even as soon as the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. It is pleasant to take, many children like it. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as an adult. For sale by J. R. Mathews' Drug Co.

A fatal accident occurred in the Cleone woods last Wednesday, John Kunez, a young man over 18 years of age, meeting a shocking death, which must have been instantaneous. It appears he was brakeman on a couple cars going down an incline. He was alone at time, no one witnessing the accident. It is supposed in some manner he fell between the cars, his body being dragged about forty yards and fearfully mangled.

Considerable comment has been made recenty in regard to the flag not being raised on the town flag pole at the company's store last Fourth of July, and other legal holidays, and not being hoisted at half-mast when a union man or a member of his family dies.

As a matter of fact the city of Fort Bragg, to her everlasting shame can it be said, has no flag pole of her own. The one at the Union Lumber Company's store is on private ground, and of course it can not be expected that when any affair is going on under the auspices of the labor unions, that a corporation so hostile to unionism as the Union Lumber Company, would throw to the breeze old glory.

(Since the above was published in the advocate the Trustees of Fort Bragg have granted to the Labor union permission to erect a flag pole. Ed. DISPATCH)

The distracting headaches from which so many women suffer make life a daily purgatory. If men suffered with headache as women do, business would be almost at a stanstill. Does not the fact that men do not suffer from these severe headaches suggest that there must be a womanly cause for them?

When the womanly organism is diseased, headache, backache, nervousness and sleeplessness are consequences which are sure to follow.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures headaches and other aches and pains by curing their cause. It establishes regularity, dries unhealthy drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It soothes pain and builds up the nerves. It transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into happy, healthy women. Thousands have testified to its marvelous merits.

"I took two bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription' and two of the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and am feeling well," writes Mrs. Dan McKenzie, of Lorway Mines, Cape Breton Co., Nova Scotia. "I had uterine trouble, pain in the side and headache. After taking your medicines I got well. You may publish this or use it in any way you think best, as I cannot speak too highly of Dr. Pierce and his medicines."

"Favorite Prescription" has the testimony of thousands of women to its complete cure of womanly diseases. Do not accept an unknown and unproved substitute in its place.

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send twenty-one one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or thirty-one stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Speed programs are now out and have been distributed among horsemen thruout the state. The speed program is considered the best ever had in Ukiah. About $1800 will be given away to the runners and $800 to the trotters.

There are now at the race grounds about twenty trotters including several two-year-olds. The trotting horse, "Ole," having a record of 2:15¼ and owned by Grace Bros., of Santa Rosa, arrived on Monday's freight train and now has quarters at the race track. He is being handled by Trainer John Quinn and will participate in the free for all trot.

The only other trotter at the track of any particular note is Col. Abe Marks' black mare, Cecil M. She is being handled by Mr. Kolbrook and will have two or three engagements during race week.

The secretary of the race meeting informs us that quite a number of stalls are being held for running horses from Oakland, six stalls being assigned to one person. The track is being sprinkled and worked every day and is now in fine condition.

INCURABLE.

That is What the Books Say of Chronic Kidney Disease, But the New Fulton Compounds Have a Record of 87% of Recoveries Among Chronic Cases Incurable by All Other Medicines.

Druggists know that kidney disease that has hung on eight or ten months has become chronic and that it is then regarded by physicians as incurable and that up to the advent of the Fulton Compounds that nothing on their shelves would touch it. It is a proven fact that nearly nine-tenths of all cases are now curable, and druggists themselves are taking the new Compounds. One of the recoveries was Dr. Zeile himself, the pioneer druggist of 522 Pacific street, San Francisco, and he gave it to over a dozen others who recovered. Here is another interesting recovery. (We copy from the Sacramento News of November 16, 1902).

"After a serious illness of over a year Judge J. R. Allen of this city has recovered and regards himself most fortunate in successfully battling with what is generally regarded as a fatal malady, Bright's Disease of the kidneys. In speaking of his case Judge Allen said: 'I believe that the treatment given me by my physician was in accordance with the best methods used in the regular practice of medicine, but it afforded me no relief. Hearing of the Fulton Compounds I went to San Francisco to investigate and was soon convinced I should undergo the treatment. It was three months before I noticed a change for the better. I used the medicine faithfully for nearly a year and can now find no evidence of the disease and am satisfied it is entirely eliminated. My appetite is good, I have gained seventeen pounds in weight and will be pleased to describe my experience to anyone who may call or write.'"—Sacramento News, Nov. 16, 1902.

The editor of the News himself was the friend who told Judge Allen of the Fulton Compounds. They are the only things known that cure kidney diseases after as well as before they become chronic, which happens about the tenth month. Equally efficient in dropsy, gout, rheumatism from uric acid and bladder troubles. Fulton's Renal Compound for Bright's and Kidney Diseases, etc., $1; for Diabetes, $3. John J. Fulton Co., 409 Washington street, San Francisco, sole compounders. Free analyses for patients. Send for pamphlet. We are the exclusive agents for these Compounds in this city.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

What Etiquette Requires When a Chinese Boy Is First Taken to School.

American boys would doubtless consider it very funny to watch a little Chinese lad when first he is taken to school by his father and presented to the teacher. A writer in Home Words gives a graphic description of the performance as follows:

The Chinaman arrives at the school. He and the teacher shake their own hands and bow profoundly. Then the latter asks, "What is your honorable name?"

"My mean, insignificant name is Wong," is the answer.

Tea is sent for, and the teacher says, "Please use tea." The father sips for a quarter of an hour before he says to the teacher, "What is your honorable name?"

"My mean, insignificant name is Pott."

"How many little stems have you sprouted?" (This means, "How old are you?")

"I have vainly spent thirty years."

"How many precious little ones have you?"

"I have two little dogs." (These are the teacher's own children.)

"How many children have you in your illustrious institution?"

"I have a hundred little brothers."

Then the Chinaman comes to business.

"Venerable master," he says, "I have brought my little dog here and worshipfully intrust him to your charge."

The little fellow, who has been standing in a corner of the room, comes forward at this, kneels before the teacher and knocks his head on the floor. The teacher raises him up and sends him off to school, while arrangements are being made for his sleeping room, etc.

At last the father rises to take his leave, saying, "I have tormented you exceedingly today." To which the teacher responds, "Oh, no; I have dishonored you."

As he goes toward the door he keeps saying, "I am gone, I am gone." And etiquette requires the teacher to repeat as long as he is in hearing, "Go slowly, go slowly."

The Lightning Express.

Down grandmother's banister rail
Swift as the wind I slide;
I'm the engineer
That never knows fear,
And I travel far and wide.

Each time I rush upstairs
Grandmother cries, "Don't fall!"
But when, whiz, I drop
Without any stop
Between Boston and Montreal.

I hurry again to the top.
Oh, my, it is such fun,
For this is the train
That's flying from Maine
And arriving at Washington.

Once more I am off like a flash
To carry the New York mail.
I am sure you would guess
'Tis the lightning express
On grandmother's banister rail.

The Last Chocolate Eclair.

Not long ago at a luncheon a lady made a curious mistake. A plate of delicious looking cakes was passed by the colored waiter. There appeared to be but one small chocolate eclair on the plate, and the lady was very fond of chocolate.

"I'm going to be impolite enough to take the only chocolate eclair," she said.

"Excuse me, ma'am," said the waiter, "dat's ma thumb, ma'am."

What He Was Used To.

Small Harry recently accompanied his mother to church for the first time, and when the organ began to play he proceeded to stand up on the cushion.

"Sit down, Harry," whispered his mother.

"All right, mother," replied the little fellow. "I'll sit down just as soon as I see the monkey."

A Boy's Ambition.

When Admiral Hawke was a boy about to go to sea for the first time his father gave him much good advice, ending up with the words, "I hope to live to see you a captain."

"A captain!" answered the boy. "If I did not think I should one day be an admiral I would not go to sea at all!"—Chatterbox.

DEWEY'S JOKE ON MILES.

Admiral Dewey and General Miles are the best of friends, but they don't mind "knocking" each other good naturedly. They went down to Mount Vernon together on some holiday when, naturally, there were hundreds of visitors to the old home and burial place of the Father of His Country. General Miles seemed much impressed. He silently contemplated the crowd for a few moments and then said, with feeling:

"What, I wonder, would Washington say if he were suddenly to appear here in the flesh?"

"You mean just at this moment?" asked the admiral, with a suspicious twinkle in his eye.

"Yes, certainly," answered Miles, a trifle annoyed that his companion had failed to catch the inspiration of his thought.

"I really don't know," said the admiral, whose twinkle by this time had become actually malicious, "unless he asked how you ever succeeded in getting the job he used to hold."—New York Tribune.

Noah Had No Naval Committee.

In one of the Washington departments three officials the other day were talking about President Roosevelt.

"He has always been strenuous," one said. "He has always been a doer, impatient of delay, a foe of dallying. I remember once when he was assistant secretary of the navy some measure or other was in discussion, and he desired to push this measure through; but, as so often happens, there was postponement, there was red tape.

"He arose suddenly one afternoon. The session he was attending had lasted an hour, and nothing whatever had been done.

"'Gentlemen,' he said, 'if the ark had been referred to a committee on naval affairs like this it's my opinion that it wouldn't have been built yet!'"—New York Tribune.

A Tenor of Wit.

"Tenors," says Mr. Floersheim in the Musical Courier, "are not usually renowned for wit. There are exceptions, however, and one of them seems to be the Vienna tenor Slezak, who must be gifted with an epigrammatic style particularly well adapted for the composing of epigrams. One of the Berlin theatrical agents recently sent him a wire with an offer for a few appearances in Berlin at a very low remuneration. The telegram said: 'Offer you two nights, Berlin Royal Opera. "Lohengrin," "Tannhauser;" honorarium 600 marks (about $142)! Honorary affair.' Whereupon the tenor used the blank from the prepaid answer by filling it out with the short reply: 'Honorary affair secondary affair, money affair principal affair. Slezak.'"

Legislative Salaries.

Congressmen of the United States are better paid than any other legislators, receiving $5,000 a year, mileage and stationery funds. Australia allots its senators and members of the house of representatives $2,000 a year without distinction. New Zealand differentiates. The duties of the lower house being of a more exacting description than those of the upper, its members receive $1,200 annually as against $750 paid to those of the other assembly. Senators of the Canadian parliament are rewarded with $1,500 a year salary and expenses at the rate of $10 a day during session, with a maximum of $1,500. Cape Colony is not so open handed, its legislative council and house of assembly drawing $5 a day per man.

Ireland's Great Astronomer.

Ireland's great astronomer, Sir Robert Ball, has just reached his sixty-third year. It is true that he has been astronomical professor at Cambridge for a decade, but he remains a thorough Irishman still. His career as an astronomer dates back to 1865, when shortly after leaving Trinity college, Dublin, he was placed in charge of the famous private observatory established at Parsonstown, King's county, Ireland. When the possibility of signaling to Mars was under discussion he pointed out that if a flag of the size of Ireland was waved from a pole to match there was just the ghost of a chance that an astronomical Martian might perceive the ghost of a flutter on the earth.

Dazzling Teeth.

The young sultan of Johore possesses a unique peculiarity. Some years ago an accident with a horse resulted in nearly the whole of his teeth being knocked out. These have been replaced by teeth of solid gold, in each of which a large diamond has been inserted, and "as the least flicker of a smile," we are told, "uncovers them the effect is a weird one to beholders, especially when the sun catches the stones and makes them flash fire."

$3,000 Forfeit

Will be cheerfully paid in lawful money of the United States, by the undersigned, proprietors of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, if they cannot show the original testimonials and signatures of the individuals volunteering those published below, and also of every testimonial among the thousands which they are constantly publishing attesting the superior curative properties of their several medicines, and thus proving the genuineness and reliability of all the multitude of testimonials volunteered by grateful people, in their behalf.

THE REASON.—There is no medicine equal to Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for the purifying of the blood. It carries off the poisons which contaminate the life fluid. It increases the activity of the blood-making glands and gives the body an increased supply of pure, body-building blood. It builds up the body with sound, healthy flesh instead of flabby fat, promotes the appetite, feeds the nerves, and so gives to weak, nervous people vitality and vigor.

There is no alcohol contained in "Golden Medical Discovery," and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics.

WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, Buffalo, N. Y.

HON. LEE COHN

I take pleasure in expressing my satisfaction with Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, as a reliable medicine, well worthy of the confidence of those seeking relief. It is certainly a most efficient specific for afflictions of the digestive organs, headache, heartburn, and kindred troubles caused by a disordered stomach.

Many busy men suffer from dyspepsia caused by careless habits, too rapid eating and irregular meals. Little attention is paid to this until it is too late, and then you naturally ask yourself, "What shall I do to get well." I have found your "Discovery" by far the most efficacious of any medicine I have known. A few doses gives relief. Being an honest medicine and well worthy of praise, it has my hearty endorsement.

Yours respectfully,
HON. LEE COHN,
(Councilman 9th Ward.) Louisville, Ky.

"I have been greatly benefited through the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes G. T. Rose, Esq., of 125 W. Short Street, Lexington, Ky. (Constable, Fayette Co.) "I suffered for years with biliousness and torpid liver, which affected the digestive organs and clogged up the entire system. Had used different medicines but found they did not help me any; in fact, nothing that I took was of any special benefit until I tried your 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I soon found that this medicine wrought a wonderful change in my entire body; cleared up the sluggish channels of digestive organs. This activity restored the flagging strength, increased appetite and vitalized the forces until work seemed but play, my sleep was restful and sound, brain active, and I felt like a new man. Four bottles of your 'Golden Medical Discovery' caused this wonderful change, and I have certainly every reason in the world to feel gratified and to fully endorse your great remedy. For the past two years I have enjoyed perfect health."

FIXING THE TAX RATE.

The Board of Supervisors met last Monday to fix the tax rate for the fiscal year. Last year the assessed valuation of the county was $10,610,856 and the rate was fixed at 2 cents on the $1. This year the assessed valuation of the county is $12,787,770, an increase in value of $2,176,914 over last year—and still the rate is 2 cents on the $1. Last year the amount collected from the tax-payers was $212,217. This year the amount to be collected to run the affairs is $255,755—an increase over last year of $43,538. Ordinarily an increase in assessed value ought to reduce the tax rate, but it is not so in this county.

In looking for an explanation of the high tax rate, we find the following in a local Republican contemporary of Sept. 11th:

"With the appointment of A. J. Fairbanks as Supervisor from the 3rd district the complexion of the Board is again Republican. Barnard and Rawles are old and tried members and have been zealous in their labor for the county's interest. With the acquisition of a man of Mr. Fairbanks' broad mindedness and business ability there can be no question as to the safety of the county funds. The residents should congratulate themselves on their good fortune in having such good men at the helm."

According to our contemporary, then, the responsibility for the high tax rate is due to the Board's being Republican, in whose hands "the safety of the county funds" is assured. Had the assessed valuation of the property of the county not been increased the tax would have been at least $2.20 on the $100.

"The complexion of the Board being Republican" the taxpayers can naturally expect high taxes. The Republican party nationally is in favor of high tariff (high taxes). The Republican party locally is also in favor of high taxes. But then "the residents of Mendocino county should congratulate themselves on their good fortune in having such good men at the helm." That's all right for "non taxpaying" residents, but how about the taxpayer? Seeing that "the complexion of the Board is Republican", we presume that the shaky taxpayers can congratulate themselves that the rate is not 3 cents. But, taxpayers, take heart, next year being election year, the Board will reduce the tax rate temporarily, in order to gull the people into keeping "the complexion of the Board Republican."

SOLUTION OF A SCHOOL PROBLEM

"A serious problem in the public schools has been solved in a way, and the reports state that it is an effectual way, by the authorities in the town of Batavia, New York," says the San Francisco Bulletin. "Finding the schools overcrowded, the teachers overworked, the pupils falling behind for lack of attention, and there being no liklihood of getting new schools for a long while, Superintendent John Kennedy placed an additional teacher in each of the overcrowded rooms, not, as he said, to hear recitations, but to give personal, individual instruction to the backward pupils. In some cases one teacher goes from room to room coaching the deficient pupils in several classes. It is said the system has produced astonishing results. Slow pupils have caught up with quick ones, order and discipline have improved, and the pupils have been enabled to master their lessons with less study at home The 'individual' teachers are not assistants or normal students, but are fully qualified teachers, receiving full pay."

"The new idea seems to have excited keen interest in pedagogical students throughout the country, and a number of them have visited the schools of Batavia to observe the idea in practical application. Many of the authorities profess to see in the plan a practicable way out of a difficulty that is embarrassing the school departments of a large number of American cities."

"If the bond issue for the schools receives the necessary number of votes next Tuesday this city will probably have school room enough within two or three years, but the plan might be worth some thought on the part of the School Board."

LANE'S ADVICE ACTED UPON

When it was announced that the State Board of Equalization had increased the assessment roll of San Francisco 30 per cent, the daily papers of that city had a succession of spasms several columns in length, the paroxysms growing gradually less and less violent. The consolidated city and county government was in a dilemma. The local tax rate had already been levied on the basis of the assessment and the rate so levied would raise $1,300,000 more than was needed if collected on the basis of the increased assessment. Some advocated having two rates; one for the state's portion of the tax and another for the city and county. City Attorney Franklin K. Lane was appealed to pull the local government out of a hole and he did it with his usual exercise of common sense. He simply advised the Board of Supervisors to fix a new and lower rate of taxation for the city and county, based upon the valuation fixed by the State Board of Equalization and in accordance with the provisions of the Political Code. Then a writ of mandate can be sued out in the Supreme Court to compel the Board of Supervisors to adhere to the rate fixed in July, and the whole matter can be settled before taxes become due. Franklin K. Lane can always be depended on to find both a legal and commonsense way thru difficulties. The Board of Supervisors accepted Mr. Lane's advice and on Monday fixed the new rate.

The nomination of Franklin K. Lane for Mayor of San Francisco, which took place Tuesday night, should command the hearty approval of all good citizens of the city by the Golden Gate. His ability is unquestioned, his honesty undisputed, his public spirit undoubted and his devotion to the public interests unexcelled.

Dan Kevane, ex-Secretary to the State Board of Examiners, has lost none of his insufferable audacity since he was legislated out of office. A short time prior to his own retirement Governor Gage insulted the moral sense of the state by appointing Kevane to the office of State Bank Commissioner. Before Daniel had an opportunity to enter upon the functions of the office, the legislature abolished the Bank Commission especially to get rid of crafty and grafty Danny. Now comes the obnoxious Dan and files a mandamus suit to compel the State Controller to draw warrants for his salary as Bank Commissioner from the time his appointment should have taken effect down to date, in the sum of $2,010. Dan is a hard man to sit upon.

The universities "point with pride" to the bright lights of professional life—who would have been bright lights without the schools—but seldom point to the pettifoggers, the quacks, the fakes which constitute the larger body of the graduates. A college that tries to make the all-round citizen, and lets him make his own way as a specialist, is the school most needed. Schools for specialists are helping only to develop class aristocracy in this country—and the greatest virtue and the greatest evil of the universities is their associations.—Petaluma Courier.

If every girl who thinks she knows how to play the piano knew how to cook, the divorce lawyers would go into some other business.

A scoundrel named Procter who made a criminal assault on a young girl in San Diego will escape punishment because he was not brought to trial within the sixty days prescribed by law. The father now threatens to shoot his child's assailant. That is exactly the proper thing to do. Shoot, and shoot to kill. When the law fails to punish for such dastardly crimes through some senseless provision, there should be some avenger, and who with a better right than an outraged father?

Little Deleware may be slow in some things, but there they make the punishment to fit the crime of rape. It is death.—Marysville Appeal.

When a young man or a young woman has learned just enough to make them discontented with their station in life, a doubt is raised as to whether or not the school of today turn out more desirable citizens than they did when the curriculum was simplicity itself. What good results from stuffing childern with moral philosophy, international law astronomy, higher mathematics, etc., if they cannot turn any of these things to account when they become men and women?—Woodland Democrat.

Senator John T. Morgan, of Alabama, was much abused by a large division of the public press because in the last congress he so strongly and persistently opposed the adoption of the Panama canal route. He consumed much time in committee and on the floor of the senate in trying to show that the Panama scheme was a fraud and a sham and urged the Nicaragua route instead. He now stands vindicated in his course and can say to his fellow senators, "I told you so."

A Missouri country editor refuses to publish obituary notice of people who, while living, failed to subscribe to his paper, and gives this pointed reason: "People who do not take their home paper are dead anyhow, and their mere passing away is of nonews value."

What Difference?

What difference does it make to employers what wages they pay, so long as they simply add the increased prices of labor to their previous prices for articles sold? And what profit does the workman get for increased wages if he has to pay it all back in the increased prices of everything he and his family use?—Our Dumb Animals.
